THE CITY APPROPRIATIONS.

We publish elsewhere to-day the communication of the Common Council has taken the responsibility of reducing the appropriations recommended by the Committee of the City Comptroller. The duty of the Comptroller on the amount of the appropriations, the prohibition of the sale of public property, direct taxation for sewerage and water improvements, these two items called for some discussion. The second of these subjects, that including the duties of $2,100,000 for sewers and water, the Council has cut down to $1,307,000, a reduction of more than $800,000. We think that the Council has acted wisely in this matter. The sewers can easily be built during the greatest dull season, and will be an indigent level. Although there will be hoisted by countless appliances, but on large contracts, by the day, by contractors, but on large contracts, by the cubic foot, and who will prefer work by the day, and who will prefer work by the cubic foot, and who will prefer work by the cubic foot, and who will prefer work by the cubic foot

The first contest for the billiard championship of the Northwest and the championship of Chicago took place on Saturday at Crosby's Opera House, the principals being Coon, of Chicago, and Rhines, of Minneapolis, and the latter was the victor by a score of 400 to 295. The game was a very interesting one, and was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd of both sexes. The audience will take pleasure in learning that the next billiard play, and, by-the-by, I use it in no technical sense, will be between Rhines and Dion, the Parisian champion, for the championship of the world, and for a purse of $2,000. The match will be played in this city, and will probably occupy the attention of the lovers of the game for a week. Rhines will be backed by Chicago capital, and Dion will be supported by the Parisian element. The latter will arrive in this city about the 1st of June, and the match will be played immediately thereafter. Rhines is a young man, and has been playing billiards but a few years. He is a native of Minnesota, and has been playing in Minneapolis for the past two years. He is a quiet, unassuming young man, and has many friends in this city. He is a fine player, and is considered by many competent judges to be the equal of Dion. Coon was formerly champion of Illinois, but has been defeated by Rhines and Dion, and is now third best player in the country. He is a resident of Chicago, and has many friends here. The match between Rhines and Coon was for $1,000 a side, and the game was 1,000 points up. The game was played on a 10-foot table, with the following result:

	Innings.	Average.	Highest run.
Rhines	75	5	46
Coon	75	3	16

Rhines won the game in the 75th inning, and his average was 5 and his highest run 46. Coon's average was 3 and his highest run 16. Rhines made 400 points and Coon 295. The following is the score by innings:

LEXINGTON RACING RACES.

LEXINGTON, May 27.—The last day of the spring meeting was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd of both sexes. All the other days of the week, and the one which opened the proceedings on Monday, were favored with fine weather, but this morning fell dull and threw an effect over the whole. It was a welcome feature for the visitors, as it kept the dust down, and by carrying off the sultriness of the atmosphere, rendered it more comfortable. The track was in excellent condition, and, by common consent, was the best of the week. The first race on the programme was for a purse of $200, mile heats, best three in five, which was won by the latter, as follows:

Time—1:50½; 1:50½; 1:50½; 1:51½; 1:53.

Decision Relative to the Joy Purchase.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 27.—The United States Circuit Court, to-day, decided, in the case of Bell vs. Hunt, against the settlers on the Cherokee neutral lands:

1. That the treaty of 1866 and Senate Official Report of 1867 gave a fee title to the lands to the Indians of the Southern tribes.

2. That whether the Indians had the fee to only the ordinary possessory right, the treasury of 1866 and 1867 did not, by its corresponding with the provisions, as such was plainly the extent of the treaty-making power.

3. That the treaty-making power did not attempt to alienate the public domain, which was the exclusive province of Congress and legislation.

4. That to say the government would not this land for more than $1.25 per acre, and that it would be to make the government a party to an unlawful act.

5. That whether the Rev. W. Joy was engaged in procuring the passage of the treaty of 1866, the treaty of 1867 covers all defects that may have existed.

6. That every act the facts and circumstances in the case of Joy vs. Hunt is clearly void in the treaties and patent, is complete and perfect title, and cannot be successfully assailed in the hands of the superior of grantees.

War Department Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—There has been rain mainly on the Gulf coast, and occasionally on the Ohio and Lower Mississippi valleys. Elsewhere the weather has been fair, with the exception of the pressure from Lake Erie to Virginia, where it has been cloudy and threatening. Partially cloudy and cooler weather, with light winds, will prevail on the Gulf coast, with a decided fall in temperature, has been experienced from Lake Michigan to Maine and Connecticut. Fair weather will prevail on the Lower Mississippi and Ohio valleys, and in the Mississippi Valley.

PROBABILITIES.

It is probable that thunderstorms and cloudy weather will very generally prevail from Maine to the Atlantic and Gulf, with occasional rain, and a more extended rain appears to be the overlying rest of the Mississippi.

A Correspondent of the Boston Traveller, writing from Constantinople, gives the following account of the Bible in the Turkish capital:

"Among the many interesting objects which I have seen in this city, I have been particularly interested in the Bible. A German, by the name of Brunn, has been here for many years, and has succeeded in translating the Bible into the Turkish language. He has also published the Bible in the Armenian language.
